JOHN W. TIERNEY.

John W. Tierney, former chief of the Newark Police Department, died at his home in that city early yesterday. He lived at 242 Grant av. East Newark, where he was born fifty years ago. He was the son of the late John Tierney, contractor in West Hudson. Besides a rife he leaves two sisters. Miss Teresa Tierney and Mrs. William A. Vallance.

Mr. Tierney was the first chief of police of East Newark. He always attributed his illness to the beating he received at the hands of four men and a woman after he had stopped a fight between John McGrath and Edward Duffy.
